Pope Francis Forbids Catholics From Voting For Hillary!

Facebook Post by James · 10 October 20, 2016

Cardinal Ratzinger, who became Pope Benedict XVI in 2005 and served through 2013, wrote a blistering letter in 2004 forbidding Catholics from voting for presidential Hillary Clinton or anyone who supports her. This is the first time that the church has ever issued an instruction or prohibition to a group. The original letter hangs from the wall, with references...

With Dr. Molly Kerby

I LOST MY JOB

and my home and my health care and my retirement and my self-esteem

Social conflict, public debates, propaganda, and "fake news" impede the process of civil dialogue and blur the lines of legitimate democratic debate. This course examines social and political conflicts particularly prone to "fake news" and explores strategies that promote civil discourse and informed democratic engagement.
