

Free Kentucky Academy of Science (KAS) Annual Memberships

We are pleased to announce that Western Kentucky University is a 2016 Kentucky Academy of Science (KAS) Enhanced Affiliate and faculty, staff, and students may join KAS for free. KAS is a nonprofit organization fostering scientific discovery and understanding in Kentucky, and we are more than 3000 members strong, an all-time high.

Membership in KAS is open to anyone with an interest in science. KAS members receive news, announcements, job and research opportunities from KAS; are eligible to apply for research grants and publish in the Journal of the Kentucky Academy of Science (JKAS); receive complimentary electronic access to the Journal, and are entitled to discounted KAS annual meeting registration fees. Members may also search our database and connect with fellow scientists across Kentucky.

How to become a (free) KAS member:

- visit www.kyscience.org
- select "Become a Member", then "Join and Pay online" (no fee will be charged) Choose "Yes" at the Enhanced Member option.
- Use your Western Kentucky University e-mail address for registration.
- NOTE: If you are already a member of KAS your membership will be automatically updated for 2016 and no action is required.
